Exclusive Programming - Heard only on talktainmentradio.com

Our audiences are educated, driven, and tech-savvy. With over 50 shows on our roster, we've got programming available for every listener!

- Business and Technology

There is an increased interest in using modern technology to conduct online business. 56% of all small businesses now have websites, up from 46% a year ago.

- News and Politics

Online is where a majority of the population goes to get their news. The Internet surpassed newspapers as a source of news for the first time with 46% of people saying they get their news online at least three times a week.

- Sports

72% of all males and 50% of all females are sports fans. 68% of them make over $50,000 a year, making this demographic appealing for companies looking to advertise to those with disposable income.

- Comedy

Audiences continue to spend their money on having a good time. Americans have spent over $44.7 billion on comedic entertainment in the last decade.

- Family

The family demographic continues to be at the top of every company's marketing and advertising wish-list. U.S. family households spend over $75.5 billion every year on entertainment.

- Supernatural and Paranormal

Interest in supernatural origins has surged over the last decade. A recent poll revealed that 75% of Americans believe in paranormal phenomena.

- Arts and Culture

Arts and culture are popular and lucrative passions for the buying public. The arts and culture industry generates $166.2 billion in economic activity every year.

- Religion

The transition to using online means to obtain information has had an effect on those who take interest in spirituality. 1 out of 4 Internet users have searched online for religious information.

- Health and Wellness

Nearly 50% of all Americans dedicate their time and money to health and wellness programs. This industry generates more than $21 billion in revenue each year.

- Music

Increased consumer interest in finding music online has seen the already profitable industry flourish. By 2015, the $6.3 billion niche is projected to reach an all-time high of $7.7 billion.

- Love and Relationships

Over 40 million people flock to the Internet every year in search of love and relationships, leaving advertisers wanting to stake their claim in this $1.6 billion industry.

Users are more likely to see your ad online as your brand message is being reinforced on-air. Why? talktainmentradio.com is a destination station! Our listeners make the conscious decision to tune in to our programming. Listeners are not distracted by traffic or listening to pass the time. TTR listeners seek out our programming on their own, making them more receptive to every message and every banner.

The Future of Online Radio

Smartphones have caused more and more drivers to abandon the airwaves of terrestrial radio. Listeners can now sync their phone in their car to enjoy programming when they want. Our listenership is rising while terrestrial stations suffer as a result of the technological movement. Online and mobile radio are expected to see the most significant revenue gains (in millions) compared to broadcast and satellite radio.

The infographic is divided into three horizontal sections. The top section is split into two columns. The left column features a silhouette of a couple, the text '56% of Americans Listen to Online Radio', and the source '[Source: Arbitron]'. The right column features the text 'More Than 89M Consumers Per Month Connect to online audio' and a map of the United States, with the source '[Source: TargetSpot]'. The middle section has a background image of a hand holding a smartphone. It contains the text 'studies show adding Internet Radio to an Online Campaign' and 'Increases AD Response by 200%', with the source '[Source: TargetSpot]'. The bottom section is titled 'Advertisers' and displays a grid of logos for various partners: Tech Columbus, Panache Fitness Company, Franklin County Children Services, Oxy Water, Ohio State, Stonehall SWC Columbus, United Way of Central Ohio, MBE Minority Business Enterprise, and Red White & Boom!
